Why do I call it a "Thanksgiving song?" Because giving praise to God for the glory of His deeds and His character is one way of thanking God.Here is a less traditional version of the Doxology, arranged in a gospel style and sung by a wedding party of groom and groomsmen! You will notice (if you are not playing a melody-only instrument) that I haven't put the chords in these lead sheets! Sorry! I might get around to it if enough people ask me for them.But if you have a knowledge of chord theory and a background in figuring out "What's the I, IV & V chords of this song?" then this will not be too hard to figure out. Liz:Hello - I just want to say THANK YOU so much for the duet version of Oh Holy night (in Bb too!), which is great, as I have two students at school that are going to sing this in a concert in 3 weeks. Score. (Challenge your students to figure out the chords to the Doxology!) But if you wish to have a more traditional sound, here is the order of the chords as I prefer them: I I V vi V I V II I I V vi IV I VI V I V I IV V [vi][iv] I vi ii ii I V I For those of you completely baffled by what I just wrote, here's a brief exercise:Play the C scale on the piano. From left to right, that scale is C, D, E, F, G, A, B, C. Capital letters are for major chords, and small-case letters are for minor chords. Thank you so much for this simple, easy to read version as my vocalists are not professional and this music won't be quite so intimidating as other arrangements I have. God has an only Son in Jesus Christ. You may not digitally distribute or print more copies than purchased for use (i.e., you may not print or digitally distribute individual copies to friends or students). As we come together for Father's Day, there is a great opportunity to reaffirm our relationship with God as Father, and encourage the men among us to embrace their own identity with God as their Father and ultimate role model.
